Lead more effectively with coaching skills

Coaching Skills Certificate for Leaders - Ghana

In partnership with the Academy of Executive Coaching (AoEC)

About the certificate

A two day practical certificate for leaders who want to improve how they lead, and have better coaching conversations in their very next team meeting.

What your will be able to do immediately as a leader:

- Hold coaching conversations that build ownership and reduce your team's dependence on you for every decision.
- Listen deeply and ask questions that unlock critical thinking
- Lead difficult and performance management conversations with confidence
- Use the GROW model in everyday leadership

Who is it for?

Leaders, managers, HR professionals, pastors, business cwners and anyone responsible for leading people.

Important to know:

This programme equips you to use a coaching approach within your current leadership role and take your leadership to another level. It does not qualify you to start a professional coaching practice. Those who wish to become professional coach will need to continue with the accredited Practitioner Diploma in Executive Coaching.

> The AoEC Coaching Skills Certificate delivered everything I hoped for and more. I was hoping to learn to run coaching conversations with my team members and to improve my listening skills and I absolutely achieved that.
> Tom Foster-Carter - Lillypilly Ltd

For those who discover a passion for coaching and wish to train as a professional executive coach, please speak with us about our triple accredited Practitioner Diploma in Executive Coaching. The Coaching Skills Certificate provides 12 hours of coach education from the AoEC, which can be used towards an accreditation with a professional coaching body of your choice, including an ICF credential via the portfolio route.
