

Practitioner Diploma in Executive Coaching

Accredited by:

ICF ACSTH, EMCC Practitioner level, AC Recognised Course

Are you an experienced manager, trainer or consultant who wants to add Executive Coaching to your skill set?

As an experienced professional who draws out the ability of others, you may have learned that you have an aptitude for coaching and would like to develop those skills further. Perhaps you want to complement your HR or OD function by extending your coaching skills. Or, you may be a life coach who wants to learn more about how to coach executives.

If any of these statements is true, then the Practitioner Diploma is for you!

The Executive Coaching Journey

Held over a series of 3 two-day modules plus an assessment day and supported by an e-learning programme, participants work with the AoEC's comprehensive coaching model of Beginnings, Middles and Endings to mirror the Executive Coaching process. By taking the Practitioner Diploma in Executive Coaching you will discover how to:

- Build a strong professional client relationship based upon trust, respect and rapport.
- Draw upon a significant body of psychologically grounded coaching skills to promote client development, encourage breakthrough and deepen understanding.
- Align coaching to the business and organizational context.
- Manage effective closure to exceed client, coach and sponsor expectations.

1. Beginnings: Engaging the Client

- Develop a clearer understanding of contracting with client, coach and sponsor.
- Study key coaching frameworks and models to clarify goals and objectives.
- Enhance your listening and questioning skills in practice sessions with direct feedback.
- Start to develop your own personal, unique coaching framework.
- Clarify your understanding of ethical guidelines and professional standards.
- Establish peer coaching relationships to promote coaching practice.

2. Middles: Deepening the Understanding

- Learn how to utilise consulting skills in a coaching context.
- Utilise systems thinking as a means to understand the client's world.
- Assess your client's developmental and emotional needs.
- Clarify the boundaries of your personal coaching practice.
- Explore the nature of personal and professional change.
- Experience supervised coaching practice.
- Be alert to both explicit and tacit information and its impact on coaching outcomes.
- Perform mid-term reviews with client and sponsor.
- Employ solutions-focussed coaching tools to achieve.
- Client outcomes.

3. Ending: Successful Review and Closure

- Understand how your own experience of organisations influences your approach
- Discuss and practice coaching on a variety of frequent business issues such as:
 - Alignment of goals between individuals, teams and organisations.
